WHY CHOOSE ROMAX SOLUTIONS?

At Romax Solutions we support our clients by fully understanding your requirements and expectations. Whether it be a permanent or temporary contract, we will assist you with a tailored approach that suits you. Our role is to eliminate the responsibility of recruitment to help you save on time and money.

This is achieved with our experienced team of consultants that are here to offer professional advice that can further transcend your current recruitment processes. We take away the stress of finding the right candidates so you can concentrate on ensuring your business continues to operate to its full potential.

AT ROMAX SOLUTIONS WE FOCUS ON ACHIEVING THE FOLLOWING FOR YOU:

Reliability from our extensive database of candidates

An aftercare service following successful placements and ongoing temporary contracts

Up to date market research concerning your specified industry

A sustained relationship to ensure loyalty and continued attention to the developments of your company

A thorough understanding of your requirements and scope of works

A fully transparent and honest service

In house Payroll services

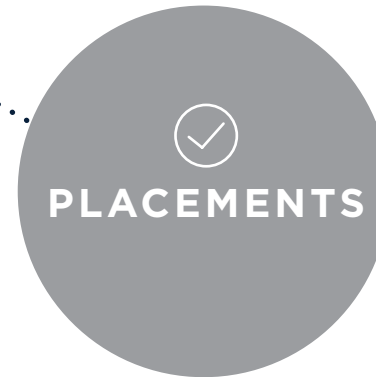

OUR PROCESS...

Your dedicated Account Manager will work closely with you to obtain a thorough understanding of the role while our team will undertake comprehensive research for the assignment. Each potential candidate is then screened and compliant before we take them to the next stage.

Our core belief is that our candidates are just as valuable as our clients and we like to treat them as such. We take the time to understand their needs, objectives and work ethic which helps us match them to their perfect role. All candidates are fully briefed, prepared and supported till the very end of the process.

As skilled experts in negotiation, your Account Manager will handle the full negotiation process with the candidate to successful completion. We will then arrange a start date and talk through notice periods to ensure all parties are satisfied.

Romax Solutions provides an on-going client support service and candidate care to ensure your new addition has everything they need.

BUILDING & CONSTRUCTION RECRUITMENT

We have a dedicated team specialised within the construction industry. Our job is to eliminate any staffing problems you may have on your projects from blue collar staff through to white collar.

We strongly believe that an efficient and honest working relationship with our clients will alleviate any pressures and costs that can be influenced by recruitment on your construction projects daily. We partner our clients to ensure the recruitment process is smooth and reliable.

This is achieved by our experienced and knowledgeable consultants as well as our loyal team of operatives who understand your company expectations from the beginning.

Our service doesn't stop once a candidate is placed. We strongly believe that a working and personal relationship with both our clients and candidates is essential to your works being completed efficiently, to task and on budget.

Every client is different, our job is to help you continually assess how you can improve your recruitment process and achieve a way that works effectively for you and your existing employees on and off site.

WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY...

“Romax Solutions has been a preferred supplier of labour to Erith Group for over five years. We have always dealt with the same consultant and have been provided with an honest and competitive service since working with them. We look forward to continuing our working relationship in the future.”

Commercial Director, Erith Group

“My experience with Romax Solutions was extremely positive - the team were extremely proactive, helpful and knowledgeable. Their expertise and pragmatic approach is a massive help, so thank you to the whole team.”

Senior Warehouse Manager, DSV

“Being a specialist trade it isn't always easy finding operatives to fulfil these positions. We have used a few agencies over the years but for the past five years Romax has stood above the rest in terms of their professionalism and the high quality of their service. Long may it continue.”

Senior Contracts Manager, Putney & Wood

“The Romax team have been a part of my preferred supplier list for over three years. They have consistently gone above and beyond to support, with proactive and reactive recruitment models. Meeting demands for multiple requirements on our national facilities management provision.”

Operations Manager, Randstad Sourceright
